

Fiber optic interface socket panel price

AI Overview

Fiber optic socket panels typically range from $3 to $25 per unit, depending on port count, adapter type, and build quality.

Price Overview

Basic single or dual-port panels: Small fiber optic wall outlets or mini termination boxes for 1–2 fibers can cost as low as €3 (~$3) for simple sockets and plugs in Europe.

2-port FTTH fiber optic socket panels: Commonly used for home or small business installations, these panels with SC adapters and dual-layer cable management are priced around $10–$20 per unit on platforms like Amazon and specialized suppliers.

Higher-capacity or multi-port panels: Panels supporting 4, 6, 8, or more ports, suitable for larger residential or commercial setups, can range from $20 up to $50 or more, depending on features like dust-proof covers, wall-mounting options, and compatibility with SC, LC, or FC adapters.

Factors Affecting Price

Port Count: More ports increase the cost due to additional adapters and internal fiber management.

Adapter Type: SC, LC, and FC adapters vary in price, with LC duplex adapters generally costing slightly more than SC simplex.

Material and Build Quality: ABS plastic panels with waterproof and dustproof features are more durable and slightly more expensive.

Installation Type: Wall-mounted, desktop, or surface-mount designs may influence pricing due to complexity and included accessories.

Brand and Supplier: Reputable brands or suppliers offering warranties and quality assurance may charge a premium.

Example Products

Create Idea 2-Port Fiber Optic Terminal Junction Box: 2 SC ports, waterproof, dustproof, ABS plastic, priced around $15–$20.

TopFiberBox 2-Port Wall Outlet Box: Dual-layer design for fiber slack management, supports SC adapters, suitable for FTTH applications, priced around $12–$18.

Mini Fiber Access Termination Box (Single Fiber): Compact design for home or office, supports SC or LC adapters, priced around $10–$15.

In summary, fiber optic socket panels are affordable for small-scale installations, with prices starting from a few dollars for basic units and increasing wi...
