

Fiber optic patch cord in Norway

AI Overview

Norway offers a wide range of fiber optic patch cords from suppliers like Bredengen, Fiberworks, Nexans, and Foss Fiber Optics, including standard and customized solutions for industrial, telecom, and office applications. Key Suppliers and Offerings

Bredengen provides a broad selection of fiber patch cords, including single-mode and multi-mode fibers, simplex and duplex configurations, and lengths from 1 to 30 meters. They offer connectors such as E-2000, FC, SC, and LC, including push/pull variants and outdoor-adapted Huber+Suhner connectors. Custom solutions are available for specific connector combinations, colors, or lengths, meeting international standards like IEC 61754-15 and TIA 604-16. Fiberworks specializes in fibersnorer, patch cables, and fiber tails for ODF and splice boxes. Their portfolio includes loop and reference cords, with options for standard installations or custom lengths. They emphasize fast delivery and reliable products, making them a preferred choice for major Norwegian fiber installers. Nexans Norway offers patch cords and smart cable solutions, supporting both standard and specialized fiber optic needs. They provide customer support for selecting the right products for your network. Foss Fiber Optics is a Norwegian manufacturer with extensive experience in telecom, defense, offshore, and industrial environments. They produce high-quality, pre-terminated patch cords, including single-mode duplex cables with FC-FC connectors, and offer Plug & Play solutions for demanding conditions. Foss also provides custom solutions for harsh environments, ensuring robust performance and compliance with ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 standards.

Considerations for Choosing Fiber Patch Cords

Fiber Type: Single-mode for long-distance, multi-mode for shorter distances.

Connector Type: LC for compact, high-density connections; SC for reliable push-pull connections; FC for industrial or test applications; E-2000 for high-performance networks.

Length and Customization: Many suppliers offer tailored leng...
