

New Zealand Geely Distribution Box Installation Manufacturer

AI Overview

Giltrap Group's NordEast Vehicle Distributors is the official distributor for Geely in New Zealand, handling vehicle components and installation services. Official Distributor In New Zealand, NordEast Vehicle Distributors, a division of the Giltrap Group, serves as the official distributor for Geely vehicles and components, including distribution boxes for both passenger and commercial models. NordEast unites six brands from the global Geely Group portfolio, ensuring that all parts, technical support, and installation services are available locally. This includes support for commercial vehicles under the Farizon brand, which focuses on fleet electrification and new energy vans. Authorized Service Centers For installation or maintenance of Geely distribution boxes, you should contact authorized Geely dealerships and service centers. Key locations in New Zealand include: Giltrap Geely Auckland – Grey Lynn, Auckland City, offering full service and installation for EVs and hybrid models. Other authorized dealerships are located in Hamilton, Tauranga, Wellington, and Christchurch. These centers provide certified technicians, genuine Geely parts, and warranty-backed installation services, ensuring compliance with manufacturer standards. How to Proceed Locate your nearest authorized dealer via the Geely New Zealand dealer finder at geely.nz/find-a-dealer,. Contact the service department to confirm availability of distribution boxes and schedule installation. Verify warranty coverage and ensure that all parts are genuine Geely components to maintain vehicle integrity and safety. By working through NordEast and authorized dealerships, you ensure that your Geely vehicle receives professional installation and support for distribution boxes, whether for personal or fleet use.
